

The background is a white canvas covered with numerous colorful splatters and dots. On the left, there are orange and red splatters. In the center, there are yellow and light green splatters. On the right, there is a large, dense cluster of blue and cyan splatters. A light green, semi-transparent, rounded shape is positioned on the left side, partially overlapping the yellow and green splatters. The text "Et-Cetera Event Report" is centered within this green shape.

Et-Cetera Event Report

Kranti 2023 – Street Play Event

Kranti highlighted significant societal changes, addressing issues like gender equality, environmental conservation, and political issues. Through powerful performances, the play inspired the audience to reflect on progress and continue advocating for positive, inclusive change in our community.

Kranti 2024 – Street Play Event

Kranti 2024 concluded with resounding success, captivating audiences with its powerful portrayal of societal changes. Themes like ethnic cleansing, transphobia, and sleep deprivation were brought to life, inspiring attendees to champion positive change in our community.

